SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 4 years on the SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT-3 years on counts 1, 19-33, 35-38 and 4 years on counts 2-18 all such terms to run concurrently .

Within 72 hours of release from custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (on the next page).

Based on information presented, the defendant is excused from the mandatory drug testing provision, however, may be requested to submit to drug testing during the period of supervision if the probation officer determines a risk of substance abuse.

If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release and shall comply with the following special conditions:

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant is to refrain from employment as an officer of public company during the period of supervised release, etc.

The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any restitution obligation. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

RESTITUTION AND FORFEITURERESTITUTION

The defendant shall make restitution to the following persons in the following amounts:

Name of Payee (Victim)	Amount of Restitution
John McDonald, Senior Vice President, Bank of America, N. A., 111 Westminister Street, R11-102-16-01, Providence, RI 02903	$75,217,510.44
Mark Lebovich, Esq., Bernstein, Litowitz, Berger & Grossman, LLP, 1285 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019	$40,000,000.00

Payments of restitution are to be made payable to U.S. Treasury and mailed to Clerk, U.S.D.C., 402 East State Street, Rm 2020, Trenton, New Jersey 08608 for distribution to the victim(s).

The amounts ordered represent the total amounts due to the victims for these losses. The defendant's restitution obligations shall not be affected by any restitution payments made by other defendants in this case, except that not further payments shall be required after the sums of the amounts actually paid by all defendants has fully satisfied these losses. The following defendants in the following cases may be subject to restitution orders to the same victims for these same losses: Mark Cocchiola Criminal No. 05-533-01, Lawrence Fransen Criminal No. 04-10, George Vieira Criminal No. 04-11, John Van Sickle Criminal No. 04-12, Robert Quattrone Criminal No. 04-13, Jack Gaglio 05-141, Arthur Christensen 07-32. The restitution is due immediately. It is recommended that the defendant participate in the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program (IRFP). If the defendant participates in the IRFP, the restitution is not paid prior to the commencement of supervision, the defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly installments of not less than $25.00, to commence 30 days after release from confinement.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing or residence address that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of the court.

Payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment, (2) restitution principal, (3) restitution interest, (4) fine principal, (5) community restitution, (6) fine interest, (7) penalties, and (8) costs, including cost of prosecution and court costs.
